Comments made by people who took part in 2012	I think you do a tremendous job and help people who really need help. It is great that all the funds go directly to the cause. I don't like big charities as I feel the fat cats get fatter and less goes to the cause	Extremely passionate about brown dog, honestly I only look forward to Christmas day more than brown dog weekend. I am proud and extremely committed to continue supporting this fantastic charity
	It is amazing - yet again a group of totally dedicated lively people coming together. Well done to the hard work of the organisers	I have had a great weekend and met some really lovely friendly people. Everyone was so welcoming and interesting to talk to that it kept me going on the challenge.
	Incredible people and charity event - love it!	I found the support from the group was fabulous. This was my first challenge and everyone welcomed me warmly. Everyone in the team was very encouraging and supportive
	Fantastic and great chance to meet new people and old friends!	I'm proud to be part of brown dog as it's a very worthwhile charity that supports great causes and has a sense of family.
	I do quite a lot of fund raising at my local temple for various charities. However I feel that this charity you really see where the tangible benefit rather than money just disappearing once donated. Going forward I will fully support this charity. Also felt so welcome almost like an extended family.	Excellent organisation. Excellent two days. Thank you so much I feel part of the brown dog family - everyone is so friendly
