Helping people with cancer

THE EXMOOR COASTAL MOONWALK

What have you done today to make you feel proud.....

Each year the Brown Dog Charity organise a challenge event to raise money to buy vital equipment to help people fighting cancer.

To help people who take part raise as much money as they can, our annual event is always challenging and credible and our 2016 event is no exception.

The Exmoor Coastal Walk is a 40 mile walk that will take 24 hours to complete and involve walking through the night.

Walking along a coast line through the night is an amazing experience, watching the moon over the sea, the stars that become much clearer in the remote countryside and the general atmosphere and team spirit is something else.

This task won't be easy but the enjoyment, experience and personal satisfaction will stay with you for the rest of your life.

The walk is fully supported and safety is the number one priority.

Come and join us, take a look at this pack to find out more.....

Malsmead to Croyde – 40 miles

There is an option to do a shorter 12 hour walk starting at Combe Martin at Midnight on the 3rd June

Alternate/Shorter Challenge

Challenge Highlights & Walking Profile

Malsmead to Lynmouth

This section journeys over dramatic cliff paths, along farm tracks, through fields and beautiful wooded combes with seasonal waterfalls and streams with spectacular views over Exmoor and across to the Welsh coast.

Highlights:

- Sisters Fountain, a small holy well or spring beneath a 19th century stone structure and cross, said to have provided Joseph of Arimathea with refreshment when on his way to Glastonbury.
- Crossing the stream at Coscombe which forms the county boundary between Somerset and Devon.

Lynmouth to Combe Martin

Taking in the breath-taking views of Exmoor, the Welsh coast and Lundy from the highest point on the South West Coast Path: Great Hangman standing at 1043 feet.

Highlights

- The hanging oakwoods around Woody Bay, protected as a Site of Special Scientific Interest and home to Red Deer
- Hollow Brook: one of the highest waterfalls in Britain which drops 200 metres to the sea.
- The sense of achievement on reaching the village of Combe Martin after the many steep ascents and descents of this stretch of the walk

Combe Martin to Croyde

This is a truly spectacularly wild and beautiful section of the South West Coast Path, which includes some easy cliff paths across windswept farmland around Ilfracombe and Woolacombe and some more strenuous ascents, especially between Lee Bay and Morte Point.

Highlights:

- Seal spotting at Rockham Beach. In summer it is possible to see dolphins, sunfish and basking sharks.
- Walking along the long award winning beach at Woolacombe
- The final coastline via Baggy Point provide beautiful views and a fitting climax to a wonderful walk.

Throughout the walk the team is supported by an ever present and capable Ground Support Team
GST help carry food/water, provide refreshment, provide rest bite for anyone struggling or carrying an injury and provide general encouragement,
