My story

 Update

On the 14th and 15th June 2019, Helen and myself will be taking part in the Brown Dog Moonfleet Challenge which is to walk 40 miles along the undulating South West Coastal path from Polzeath to Bude.

This will take us 23 hours to complete and involve walking through the night without any sleep. This stretch of the coastal path is very demanding in that we will have to climb in total 11,000 feet which is like climbing Ben Nevis and Sca Fell Pike, as well as walking 40 miles - which is a long way!!!

The money we raise will buy vital equipment and help men and women fight prostate and womb cancer respectively.

Every pound you donate will go straight to this campaign and non of it will be wasted as Brown Dog has no overheads to pay.

Make sure you have selected BROWN DOG
as the charity you want to support
